

No Platform for Extremism

Responding to speakers promoting messages of hatred and intolerance

At St. Joseph's Catholic Primary School we recognise that all children have rights as outlined in the UN Convention. As duty bearers, we have the responsibility to respect these rights and are committed to supporting our children through their education and to ensure that they are rights-holders.

We aim to provide our pupils with their 'right to choose your own religion and beliefs. Your parents should help you decide what is right and wrong and what is best for you. as stated in Article 14
To have the right to be protected from being hurt and mistreated in body or mind. as stated in Article 19
To have the right to practice your own culture, language and religion - or any you choose. Minority and indigenous groups need special protection of this right. as stated in Article 30
To have the right to protection from any kind of exploitation (being taken advantage of). as stated in Article 36

1. Introduction

This "No Platform Policy" aims to ensure that St Joseph's Catholic Primary school balances the right of freedom of speech against the potential use of its facilities for the promotion of extremist ideological, religious or political beliefs. In this context beliefs are considered to be extremist if they include the expression of racist or fascist views; if they incite hatred based on religious interpretation, ideology or belief; or if they promote discrimination on the grounds of political opinion, age, colour, disability, ethnic or national origin, gender, marital status, race, religion or sexual orientation.

This model policy is based on the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council, which will be found at www.lscbbirmingham.org.uk/index.php/policies-and-procedures-pro

This provides further information and, in particular, Appendix 1 has guidelines on conducting research into the background of potential speakers.

2. Definitions

"Extremism" is defined by the Government in the Prevent Strategy as:

"Vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also include in our definition of extremism calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas."

Not every part of this definition has to be satisfied for a particular individual or organisation to be regarded as extremist."

The Equality Act 2010 prohibits discrimination, harassment or victimisation on the basis of the "protected characteristics". These are:

- Age;
- Disability;
- Gender reassignment;
- Marriage and civil partnership;
- Pregnancy and maternity;
- Race;
- Religion or belief;
- Sex; and
- Sexual orientation.

The Terrorism Act 2000 establishes a list of "proscribed organisations". These are organisations that the Home Secretary believes are concerned in terrorism. It is an offence to belong to a proscribed organisation or to invite support for a proscribed organisation. This includes arranging, managing or addressing a meeting that is intended to support the activities of a proscribed organisation

Mission Statement

We follow in Jesus' footsteps as we care for each other when we work, play and pray.

3. Principles

The Principles on which this policy is based are -

- No person may use the facilities of St Joseph's Catholic Primary school to express or promote extremist ideological, religious or political views.
- No person may use the facilities of St Joseph's Catholic Primary school to express or promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010.
- St Joseph's Catholic Primary school will not allow the use of its facilities by any group or organisation that is proscribed by HM Government.

4. Electronic Communication

St Joseph's Catholic Primary school will not allow the use of the school website, IT facilities or information management processes to:

- Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010;
- Promote or glorify terrorism; or
- Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.

The school has a right to exercise control over all activities on its IT facilities, including electronic communications associated with the name of the school and use of school equipment to access external resources. This includes the right to monitor the use of school resources.

5. Written and Printed Communication

St Joseph's Catholic Primary school has the right to exercise control over the content of any written or printed material that identifies itself as associated with the school. It will not allow the use of its facilities in the production of such material, or permit the use of its name, or of any identifying marks relating to the school, in such material, if that material appears to

- Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010;
- Promote or glorify terrorism; or
- Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.

6. Use of Buildings, Facilities and Property

In deciding whether to allow any group or organisation to make use of its buildings, facilities and property St Joseph's Catholic Primary school will take into account the views, policies and objectives of that group or organisation and may refuse on the grounds that these are incompatible with the policies and objectives of the school. In particular, access will be refused if it appears likely that the proposed activity would promote extremist ideological, political or religious beliefs.

7. Accountability

The statutory body of the school (Academy Committee) has ultimate responsibility for this policy. The implementation of the policy is the responsibility of the Principal.

St Joseph's Catholic Primary school will use the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council for guidance on conducting research into the background of potential speakers, consulting other schools, other organisations, using search engines, assessing the reliability of information found, identifying risks to community cohesion etc.

8. Reporting Concerns

The School staff have a responsibility to act on concerns. Staff will have training on how to recognise a potential issue with the promotion of extremism in school.

At St Joseph's Catholic Primary school staff will inform Mr O'Hara (Principal & Deputy DSL) or Mrs Hill / Mrs Chambers (Vice Principal & DSL / Assistant Principal & Deputy DSL) if they have a concern.

Any staff member who has raised a concern will be given feedback on the action taken.

Mission Statement

We follow in Jesus' footsteps as we care for each other when we work, play and pray.

If after reporting a concern staff feel that no satisfactory action has been taken then they should escalate the concern by informing Mrs Stirrop (Chair of the Academy Committee) of their concerns. If a concern needs to be escalated further then St Joseph's Catholic Primary school Whistle Blowing Policy is to be used.

9. Training

The school will ensure that school staff and Academy Committee representatives receive appropriate training in the issues raised by this policy.
